(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 9.—Information was received here this morning that Elzie Ogtarn, formerly of this city, and a daughter of Mrs. Molile Ogburn, of Charlotte, accidentally killed the seven-year-old grandson of Mr. J. H. Steele, who lives seven miles from Lancaster. The unfortunate occurrence took place at the home of Mr. Steele at 6 o'clock this morning. Little Boyd Steele, the child that was killed, was standing near the Ogburn girl while the latter was carelessly handling a 82-callbre pistol. The weapon was discharged, and the bullet struck the child in the right temple, inflicting a wound that produced almost instant death. It seems that the Ogburn girl left Charlotte some time ago for Lancaster county, and secured employment in the home of Mr. J. H. Steele, a prominent farmer of that county. This morning she picked up an old pistol that had been lying around the house for some time and commenced snapping that had been lying around the house some time and commenced snapping Boyd Steele was standing in the m near the girl when the pistol went CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 9.—The pres ent interest in political circles centers around the Democratic primary to be held Saturday. The friends of Mayor Brown are making strenuous endeavors to get out a full vote at the primary and the friends of Mr. Franklin are trying to keep as many votors as possible away from the primary. For these reasons the size of the vote in Saturday's primary will be awalted with much interest. As there is no opposition ticket to be voted for in the primary Saturday, the vote will naturally be somewhat small. If Mr. Brown should receive anything near hair the registered vote of the city, his friends will consider that an indication of his election. As further confirmation of this yiew, they cite the fact that in the election two years ago he received $40 votes, there being no opposition, while in the primary, where there was a contest, he received 1,106 votes.

CLOSING THE CREVASSE.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW OkthEANS, LA., April 9.—Hope of closing the Hymelia crevasse was practically abandoned to-day by Senator Brady and those who have been associated with him. All day a terrific current swept around broken ends of the cribbing and through the great 700-foot gap in the levee, undermining the light pilling, which it had taken thirteen days and nights to build. Early in the foremon it became evident that any effort to build fresh cribbing to join the end would be futile, and every energy was directed to protecting what was loft.

It is understood that a complete surrender will be made to the river if the experiment of driving sea wall piling across the break in the cribbing falls.
